

<h2 style="text-align: center;">The Wine Trading Wine List</h2>	Year	Region		Price per bottle
Chateau Loumède 2004 Classic Bordeaux wine oozing quality. Rich, well-balanced, excellent fruit, depth and length, with smooth tannins. Complements all red meats, chicken, turkey, pates and cheese. Great now and room for even more improvement. Shows off all that is great in Bordeaux wines. Grapes: Merlot 75%, Cabernet Sauvignon 25%	2003	Bordeaux		£11.99
Domaine la Garrigue, Cuvée Romaine 2004 Some tobacco, black pepper and garrigue on the nose, this is a powerful yet supple wine. Black fruits and pepper follow on the palate with a good finish. Works very well with game, red meats, strong salamis and cheeses. Grapes: Syrah 50%, Grenache 50%	2004	Côtes du Rhône		£8.50
Domaine la Garrigue, Vacqueyras 2005 Layered, silky smooth, quality southern Rhône wine. Ripe cherries and dark berries, supported by light tannins, on the palate, which linger at length on the finish. Try with game, red meats and cheeses. Grapes: Grenache 75%, Syrah 10%, Mourvèdre 10%, Cinsault 5%	2005	Côtes du Rhône		£11.99
Domaine la Garrigue, Gigondas 2005 Fine example of a Gigondas. Full rich dark fruit flavours linger in the mouth, coated with warming peppery spice. Drink outside in the cool of the evening at the end of a hot summer's day, or by the fire with spicy parsnip soup. Grapes: Grenache 75%, Syrah 20%, Cinsault 5%	2005	Côtes du Rhône		£14.99
Domaine de la Prose, Cadières 2006 Distinctive, complex aromas, with some liquorice on the finish. Smooth with strong blackcurrant, and notes of damson and firm tannins. Rich meats and strong cheeses. Decant before serving. Drink now with game, red meats, salamis or lay down for a few years for further development. Grapes: Syrah, Grenache, Mourvèdre, Cinsault, Carignan	2006	Languedoc		£8.99

Call us on 020 8241 9367 to order wine, or buy online through our easy-to-use checkout at www.winetrading.co.uk

<h2 style="text-align: center;">The Wine Trading Wine List</h2>	Year	Region		Price per bottle
Domaine de la Prose, Embruns 2005 10 months aged in oak barrels. Full flavoured, smooth and balanced. Garrigue herbs on the nose, followed by some spice, pepper and good blackberry on the palate. Excellent with red meat and pasta dishes with rich tomato sauces. Try a strong cheddar. Grapes: Syrah, Grenache, Mourvèdre, Carignan	2005	Languedoc		£10.99
Domaine de la Prose, Grande Cuvée 2005 18 months aged in new oak barrels. Blueberries and blackberries with spice on the nose. Great length with black fruit, and hints of thyme, bay leaves, rosemary and pepper. One to savour by the fire, or try with roast meats. Lay down until 2011 and beyond. A stand out wine. Grapes: Syrah 90%, Grenache 10%	2005	Languedoc		£16.99
Domaine du Dausso, Alizarine 2003 Deep-flavoured wine with excellent length. Notes of ripe black cherries on the palate, with hints of dark chocolate. Smooth, softened tannins and very approachable. Drink by itself or with red meats and medium cheeses. Hard to find this high quality in same price range. Superb. Grapes: Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Carignan	2003	Languedoc		£9.99
Dom. les Quatre Pilas, St Georges d'Orques 2002 Full-flavoured complex wine opening up with herbs and juniper on the nose. Opens and develops well on the palate, with inviting flavours of blackcurrant, cherry with a touch of spice, and good length. Excellent food wine, try red meats and cheeses Grapes: Syrah, Grenache, Mourvèdre	2002	Languedoc		£9.99
Domaine Biscan-Pujol, Pleiade 2005 Smooth, complex and highly original. Winemaker has used a wide range of grapes to make a very accessible easy drinking wine. Try with light to medium cheeses - especially young/mild goat's cheese. Cold meats and chicken. Great value. Grapes: Merlot, Syrah, Grenache, Malbec	2005	Minervois		£6.99

Call us on 020 8241 9367 to order wine, or buy online through our easy-to-use checkout at www.winetrading.co.uk

<h2 style="text-align: center;">The Wine Trading Wine List</h2>	Year	Region		Price per bottle
Domaine Pujol, Grande Reserve 2005 Aromas of spice and prune, with rounded tannins, ripe red/black fruits and touch of toast on palate. Lovely length. Immediately accessible. An exceptional all-rounder. Drink on its own or with red meats and blue cheese. Try Stilton Grapes: Syrah 50%, Grenache 20%, Cinsault 20%, Carignan 10%	2005	Minervois		£8.99
Domaine Pujol, Cuvée Edouard 2006 Smoothness, depth and spice define this accommodating Syrah. Powerful rich flavours are well refined. Try with red meats and spicy pasta dishes (will stand up to chillies!) or equally by itself. A big hearty wine with smooth tannins. Grapes: Syrah 95%, Carignan old vines 5%	2005	Minervois		£9.99
Domaine Pujol, Saint Fructueux 2005 Nose dominated by red fruits, vanilla, coconut, smoke and liquorice. Great balance of tannins and fruit. Persistent flavours finish with blackberry and cherry. Superb wine reminiscent of the rich depths of an Amarone. One to savour.* <small>*Vintage 2005 Gold medal: one of the best syrah of the world</small> Grapes: Syrah 95%, Grenache 5%	2005	Minervois		£16.99
Domaine de la Prose, Embruns 2006 10 months aged in oak barrels. Great balance, depth and length. Rich ripe fruits dominate, most obviously apricot, some pear, with notes of cinnamon and clove. Flavours linger rewardingly. Powerful finish, hint of butter. Drink on its own or with fish/shellfish. Grapes: Vermentino, white Grenache, Roussanne	2006	Languedoc		£10.99
Domaine du Dausso, L'inattendue 2005 Fresh, lively wine with flavours of ripe citrus fruits. Length holds extremely well. Great balance of flavours. Complements fish with sauce dishes, and goat's cheese, though will happily drink as an aperitif. Moreish. Grapes: Vermentino, Roussanne	2006	Languedoc		£9.99
Call us on 020 8241 9367 to order wine, or buy online through our easy-to-use checkout at www.winetrading.co.uk

<h2 style="text-align: center;">The Wine Trading Wine List</h2>	Year	Region		Price per bottle
Domaine les Quatre Pilas, Viognier 2007 Good example of single grape Viognier - well-developed fruit taste but avoiding sweetness. Length holds nicely. Perfect as aperitif or try with fruits de mer, oysters, cold prawns in shells or crab. Immediately accessible. Grapes: Viognier	2007	Languedoc		£6.99
Domaine les Quatre Pilas 2007 oaked Lively and complex wine with scents of garrigue. A range of citrus fruits held together with beguiling and persistent lemon notes. Sumptuous and very moreish aperitif or try with grilled fish or fish with sauces. Grapes: Vermentino, Roussanne, Viognier	2007	Languedoc		£8.50
Domaine les Quatre Pilas 2008 unoaked Lively wine with scents of garrigue sees this wine combine exoticism and freshness. A good nose of white flowers with spicy barley, hay and tobacco. A soft mouth, very persistent. Great as aperitif or accompaniment to grilled fish. Grapes: Vermentino, Roussanne, Viognier	2008	Languedoc		£7.99
Domaine les Quatre Pilas, Rosé 2008 Citrus fruit flavours combined with crunchy freshness, with notes of strawberry. Drink as an aperitif or with fish. More than proves the point that Languedoc is the place to find some of the best and most interesting rosés in France. Grapes: Syrah, Mourvèdre	2008	Languedoc		£7.50
Call us on 020 8241 9367 to order wine, or buy online through our easy-to-use checkout at www.winetrading.co.uk				